

Definition of California Supplier

AB 2381 (Mullin):

“California supplier” means any sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity, the owners or policymaking officers of which are domiciled in California and whose permanent, principal office or place of business from which the supplier's trade is directed or managed is located in California.

Invitrogen:

As used in section 125290.30(i), and generally, whenever referenced, “California supplier” means (a) a sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity the owner(s) or policymaking officers of which are domiciled in California and (b) whose permanent, principal office or place of business is located in California and (c) from which the supplier’s trade or business is managed.

Proposed CIRM Definition:

As used in section 125290.30(j) and in CIRM policies and regulations, “California supplier” means any sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity: (1) whose owners or policymaking officers are domiciled in California and whose permanent, principal office or place of business from which the supplier’s trade is directed or managed is located in California; or (2) that employs at least one-third, with a minimum of 100, of its total employees in California; or (3) that produces, builds, or manufactures a product or products in California for the specific product or products which are used by CIRM grantees.